PERSONAL GOSPEL.

Miss Lizzie Owen is visiting friends in Russellville.
Mr. Henry Frankel is visiting her parents in Clarksville.
C. B. Arrington, of T. A. Jones, is now teaching at this place.
Miss Bertha Baile is recovering from a severe fall received last week.
Mr. A. C. Jones and wife, of Benton, were visiting in the city yesterday.
Miss Olin Jones, returned home last week after a two weeks' visit to her cousin, Miss Fountain House.
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilgus will leave this week to make an extended visit to Florida and other Southern States.
Mr. W. M. West left for Chicago Saturday night in response to a telegram announcing that his nephew, Dr. J. R. Robinson, who has been quite sick with typhoid fever, was much worse.
Messrs. Milton Hall and Walter Burrus, of Trigg, passed through this city Saturday, enroute to Russellville, where they will enter Bethel College for the purpose of preparing themselves for the ministry.
The "Mother Goose" entertainment at Judge Peter's Friday evening was a very novel and enjoyable affair. The first lines of Mother Goose quotations were distributed and the guests required to finish out the rhymes. The first prize was won by Miss Lizzie Owen, the second by Walter Burrus and the lucky prize by Mrs. C. B. Arrington. Refreshments were served at 10:30 o'clock. Miss Peter, as usual, played the role of helen in a charming manner. Almost twenty-five couples attended.

DEATHS.

Mrs. B. A. Sayd died at her home, near Beverly, Friday, aged about 40 years.
A six-year-old child of Mr. T. F. McKnight, of Crofton, died of spasms one day last week.
Mrs. D. J. Rains died at her home on the corner of Fourth and Railroad streets yesterday morning of pneumonia.
Robert, the four-year-old son of Mr. J. J. Gaines, of Montgomery, died of scarlet fever Friday, after a brief illness.
Mrs. Nora Bowles, wife of Mr. David Bowles, died at her home Saturday of consumption, aged 24 years. She was a member of the Christian church.
Mrs. W. T. Stone died at her home Sunday last week aged 67 years.
The funeral was preached by Rev. A. W. Meacham on the following day and the body interred in the family burying ground. She was a woman of the highest type of Christian character, having been for many years a consistent member of the Baptist church.
Mrs. Sarah Edwards, widow of the late Edward Edwards, died at Mr. Geo. W. Shaw's, her brother, in this city Saturday, of consumption, aged 65 years. She had been a consistent member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church for forty years and the funeral services were held by Rev. A. C. B. Sunday by special request of Mrs. Edwards memorial services will be held at Vaughn's Chapel on Sabbath in the Spring. Her funeral will be preached by Dr. W. F. Conway, of Owensboro, in the afternoon. She was an estimable lady and leaves behind many friends to mourn her death.

COLLEGE.

A child of Henry Berry died in the city Friday of the grip.

Official World's Fair Guide.

It affords an pleasure to announce that the Official Guide to the World's (American) Exposition and the great city of Chicago is now ready in elegant book form of nearly 400 pages, richly embellished with superb illustrations of the highest order. The aid of the best photographers and engravers has been invoked that the beautiful and picturesque features of the great Exposition and the interest throughout the city of Chicago be clearly presented.

The Guide does not only describe to the minutest detail everything of importance relative to the Exposition, but also contains a full and complete picture of each of the mammoth exhibit buildings in all colors. Also the many other, illustrating artistically the useful, the curious and the beautiful that will be there in magnificent display.

It caps the climax with a magnificent cyclorama view of "Bird's Eye View of the Exposition Grounds and Buildings," beautifully lithographed in night oil colors, size 9 1/2 inches.

It is a book for the millions who contemplate visiting Chicago in 1913. It will be purchased by the millions who cannot go, but will desire to know just what their friends are doing. In fact, every loyal American citizen should possess a copy of this great work. The well-known American Publishing Company, St. Louis, Mo., are the sole State Agents, and they want agents to sell the book in every State and territory. The book will be sent on application. Send your advertisement in another column.

HERE AND THERE.

Villa Liver Pills cure biliousness.

Rev. C. H. Nash is still confined to his room.

Judge T. J. Morrow is up from a spell of grip.

The snow that fell on the 12th staid with us until the 26th.

There are only seven prisoners confined in the county jail.

Barberians were present from furnished by Mrs. F. C. G. G. G.

Lillian Kennedy will have the best house of the season Thursday night.

M. A. C. McGee has qualified as executor of the estate of the late Mr. J. M. Teer.

Miss Della Coombs has been confined to her room with the grip for a week or more.

Mr. W. T. Childs and family, of Trenton, have moved to the city and located on Jessup Avenue.

Mr. B. M. Mason, of Beverly, and Ray, C. G. Griffin, of Longview, have been quite sick for several days.

A little daughter of Mr. W. H. Lee was seriously burned a few evenings ago, fire clothing caught from a grate.

Four degrees will probably stand as the minimum temperature for this winter. The worst of our cold waves are over.

The University of Missouri, at Columbia, in which Prof. M. L. Lipscomb was teacher, was burned a few days ago.

The farmers of Adams and Sallies, Tenn., are preparing to ship a good deal of their tobacco to our market this season.

The office of T. F. Lawson, Pension Attorney, will be located until further notice in rear of Hopkinsville American office.

The Golden Wedding reception of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lander, will occur this evening at their residence, from 2 to 7 o'clock.

The ladies of the Methodist church will have a social at Mr. G. W. Gardner on Virginia St. to-night. Every-body invited. Amusement ten cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kraver, of Henderson, gave a doxy party Sunday evening in honor of their guest, Miss B. C. Cohen, of this city.

Mr. B. Wilford and Dr. Wright, of Bowling Green, passed through the city Sunday enroute to Cadiz on a visit to Mr. Robert Wilford, who is very ill.

The Governor has appointed Geo. B. E. Randolph a justice of the peace for Hopkinsville, to succeed Nelson Campbell, removed from the city 5 days ago.

There is a loss family in town owing to the fact that the mill here has not been running for two or three weeks. They will probably start up again this week.

Dr. A. J. Knapp, the celebrated oculist, will be in Hopkinsville on Feb. 1st, 2nd and 3rd. As Dr. Knapp will not visit this city during January, he will be in the city for a few days, during the month of February, to remember the above dates.

There have only been thirteen arrests made in the city up to the present time, against 51 for a corresponding time last year. Things have been extremely quiet in police circles all along during the month of January, and it is probable that the number will be less than twenty for the month.

The newly arranged Methodist church will be formerly re-named Unitarian, the dedicatory service being given by Dr. H. C. Morrison. Great preparations are being made for the occasion. The building is remodeled and enlarged in the handsome house of worship in the city.

Least Cyrus S. Railroad, of this city, is in the Chicago, one of the vessels on the way to Chili, and Lieut. W. F. Conway, of Owensboro, is on the Yorktown, which has been at the Chilean port of Valparaiso for some time. If there is to be no war, Kentucky, as usual, will be "in it."

A man named Geo Morgan living near Johnson's Mill it is said died very suddenly a few days ago. A doctor was sent for and pronounced it a case of death from poison. Morgan's wife at the same time disappeared and her whereabouts is still unknown. Morgan was an Illinois farmer for a while, but ten years ago. They leave one son.

The Cowan-Powers case has been for more than twelve months, working its way slowly through the various courts. For about a month it has been in the hands of Judge Lewis, of the Court of Appeals, for its final hearing. A decision may be rendered at any time between the end of the summer and autumn.

Chas. Newton Hood, who lectured on "Remarks" Thursday evening, was not a very decided success as a lecturer. As an eloquent and able man, he was entertaining enough for a while, but those who expected a humorous treat were disappointed. Mr. Hood is still a young man and may improve as he grows older.

Yerna and Duane McGee have returned to their home on North Main Friday evening last, the occasion being a birthday social. Lunch was served at 5 o'clock, after which the various entertainments were given in the evening, when the little fair was closed after having spent a very pleasant evening.

CREAM OF NEWS.

A Saloon Burglarized.

Sometime after an entrance to the saloon of Brasher & Ricketts a few nights ago, and secured about $50 worth of liquors. They selected nothing but the best brands and confided themselves to wait goods alone as the firm also keeps a few groceries, but they were not disturbed.

Ex-Senator Leggett Dies.

The Chicagoan Charles here closed a contract with Hon. John J. Ingalls for a lecture at the Opera House on Tuesday evening 9. The distinguished Kansas statesman will be accorded a genuine Southern welcome and every seat in the Opera House will undoubtedly be taken.

Burglary at Crofton.

Burglars entered the saloon of Mr. A. G. Bowling, at Crofton, last Friday night, and made away with a considerable quantity of liquor, several bar bottles and a lot of cysters and other eatables. They effected an entrance by prying open a window. Mr. Bowling, who was in the saloon, did not see the burglars. There is no clue to the burglar.

A College Buried.

Cedar Bluff College, at Woodburn, near Franklin, Ky., burned last Thursday. It was partially covered by insurance. The school was established 30 years ago by W. F. Whitesides, but has lately been under the control of the Methodist church. There were about 30 boarding pupils, mostly young ladies from Arkansas, Texas and Tennessee. The school will not be continued this season.

Another Lunatic Dies Himself.

John Youm's death by hanging at the Asylum yesterday morning makes the second suicide there in ten days. One suicide nearly always suggests another, and it is not surprising that several years elapse between suicides. Youm was a homicidal patient from Whitesides, Davies county, and is the man whom the police of Owensboro and the constable of the county were unable to arrest for a long time, before he was committed to the Asylum. He never exhibited the slightest suicidal notion in fact, and he looked in five minutes after he put the cord around his neck, which he fastened to his window sash and lightened it by leaping forward. His neck must have been broken, as it was impossible to restore him. He was cut down immediately.

A Sugar Prize.

Some days ago an enterprising Pamphletee firm offered a prize of $100 to the person who could find the person killed by a grizzly bear, the largest number of rabbits by 5 o'clock p. m., Saturday last. Messrs. Burrus and Clifton were promptly on hand with $100 and secured the prize. Messrs. P. B. Pendleton and J. H. Williams completed the prize also, and killed 44 rabbits, but as the co-operators failed for the delivery by 5 o'clock, they failed to do it. It is likely, however, that an extra barrel of sugar will be given them, as they delivered their game before the hour mentioned for delivery. One of the first men in the country. A gun was given to Bob Burrus a few days before by the same firm, the number of rabbits killed being 535. The first barrel of sugar was given to him by the same firm, the number of rabbits killed being 535. The first barrel of sugar was given to him by the same firm, the number of rabbits killed being 535.

MATRIMONIAL.

Draper Williams—Mr. M. H. Draper and Miss Myrtle M. Williams, of Lafayette, will be married at the residence of the bride's parents this evening. Mr. Draper is a very popular young business man and his bride, Miss Williams, is a charming young lady who will be much missed from Lafayette's single society circles.

PERMITS—Mr. T. A. Pedley and Miss Margaret McGowan, of Owensboro, were married Saturday at Princeton, where the young lady was on visit.

New York Herald July 12.

The small boy who, when asked his age, replied that, judged by the fun he had had, he was 100 years old, pretty accurately described the feeling of the large audience at the Academy last night. Lillian Kennedy made a decided hit, and an announcement that she would be married to Dr. A. C. McGee, who is a very popular young man, was received with much interest. The ceremony was held at the residence of the bride's parents, and was a very successful one. The bride and groom were both very happy, and the ceremony was a very successful one.
